Creating the people impact
How HR can deliver business growth

In a competitive world, how do organisations attract, develop and retain talent in such a manner? This means setting up competitive advantages through the People Impact.

Barriers to the people impact
Creating the People Impact isn’t easy. There are many day-to-day challenges holding us back.

Almost 60% of HR leaders cite the biggest influence on onboarding is engaging new hires in the company culture.

Source: Aberdeen Group

Almost 59% of HR leaders cite the biggest challenge of retaining talent in their business. They maximise talent to create competitive advantage through the ‘People Impact’.

Source: Society for Human Resource Management

Employee engagement remains a significant challenge

Almost 60% of HR leaders cite the shortage of required skills available in the talent pool as a major issue.

Source: Aberdeen Group

In a competitive world, how do organisations attract, develop and retain talent in such a manner? This means setting up competitive advantages through the People Impact.

The additive effect

In research conducted by Jive, they found that four human capital strategy components is a powerful way to scale up the people impact.

Just cite the best in class 'Engagement.' You can contact the Jive team by visiting www.jivesoftware.com or call us directly on +44 118 402 6900

© Ignite Enterprise Software Solutions, Inc. | All Rights Reserved

The jive impact

What distinguishes best in class

When it comes to people in the employee lifecycle, there are a number of factors that differentiate the best in class according to the Aberdeen Group.

The Jive effect

Organisations that are utilising Jive at the core of employee engagement create an immense business impact.

Jive is the leading provider of modern communication and collaboration solutions. We help organisations to connect, attract, develop and retain talent, through improving productivity and driving growth through more effective collaboration.

We work closely with clients like you. We can help your organisation get the ‘People Impact’ effect and gain an extra 5% in employee focus and 20% in employee engagement.

The Jive effect

Organisations that are utilising Jive at the core of engagement create an immense business impact.

Jive is the leading provider of modern communication and collaboration solutions. We help organisations to connect, attract, develop and retain talent, through improving productivity and driving growth through more effective collaboration.

We work closely with clients like you. We can help your organisation get the ‘People Impact’ effect and gain an extra 5% in employee focus and 20% in employee engagement.

The Jive effect

Organisations that are utilising Jive at the core of engagement create an immense business impact.

Jive is the leading provider of modern communication and collaboration solutions. We help organisations to connect, attract, develop and retain talent, through improving productivity and driving growth through more effective collaboration.

We work closely with clients like you. We can help your organisation get the ‘People Impact’ effect and gain an extra 5% in employee focus and 20% in employee engagement.